

Comfort & Convenience Adjustment

Your motorcycle has features you can adjust to suit your personal preference and increase your comfort and convenience as well.

We recommend that you take time to check the following items and make any desired adjustments before each ride:

(Models equipped with Handgrip Heater)

Handgrip Heater The range of the handgrips heater can be adjusted higher or lower (page 50).
Select the heat level you want before your ride (with the engine running).