

Electronic Brakeforce Distribution (EBD)

Your Honda SXS is equipped with an Electronic Brakeforce Distribution (EBD).

To improve vehicle stability when the brakes are applied, EBD adjusts the braking force distribution between the front and rear brakes according to traction conditions.

During hard stops the brake pedal may become stiff, then quickly return to normal feel. This is due to EBD activating, this is normal.